LITERATURE

ON OCTOBER 21 ST 2005 IT IS THE 200 TH CELEBRATION OF NELSON'S VICTORY AT THE BATTLE OF TRAFALGAR .
TRAFALGAR WAS THE LAST GREAT FLEET ACTION OF THE NAPOLEONIC WARS AND THE LAST TO BE FOUGHT UNDER SAIL
BETWEEN EUROPEAN POWERS . TWENTY SEVEN SHIPS OF THE LINE COMMANDED BY VICE-ADMIRAL LORD NELSON
INTERCEPTED A FRANCO-SPANISH FLEET OF 33 SHIPS OFF CAPE TRAFALGAR . THIS WAS STRUNG OUT IN LINE ON THE PORT TACK WHILE THE BRITISH RAN DOWN ON THEM IN TWO DIVISIONS . BECAUSE OF THE LIGHT WIND , THE LEADING BRITISH SHIPS WERE BADLY MAULED BEFORE THEY BROKE THE ENEMY LINE IN TWO PLACES . IN THE ACTION THAT FOLLOWED 17 OF THE ENEMY WERE CAPTURED AND ONE BLEW UP .
THIS WAS NELSON'S LAST AND MOST GLORIOUS AND SPLENDIDLY VICTORIOUS BATTLE . HE WAS MORTALLY WOUNDED
ON DECK BY A FRENCH SNIPER IN THE RIGGING OF A NEARBY MAN OF WAR AND DIED . IT MADE HIM THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS ADMIRAL .
