LITERATURE

GRINLING GIBBONS (1648-1721) WAS AN OUTSTANDING WOOD CARVER WHO BY 1680 HAD BEEN PRESENTED TO CHARLES II AND MADE 'THE KING'S CARVER'. ALTHOUGH HE ALSO WORKED IN MARBLE, STONE AND BRONZE; VERTUE SAYS THAT 'HE WAS NEITHER WELL SKILLED OR PRACTISED IN MARBLE OR BRONZE FOR WHICH WORK HE EMPLOYED THE BEST ARTISTS HE COULD PROCURE'.
HOWEVER, HIS WOOD CARVING WAS SO FINE THAT IT WAS SAID A POT OF CARVED FLOWERS ABOVE HIS HOUSE IN LONDON WOULD TREMBLE FROM THE MOTION OF PASSING COACHES. HE WAS EMPLOYED BY SIR CHRISTOPHER WREN TO WORK ON ST PAUL'S CATHEDRAL AND HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE WOOD WORK ON THE CHOIR STALLS, CHOIR SCREEN AND ORGAN CASE, AS WELL AS AN ALTAR PIECE WHICH WAS BOMB DAMAGED DURING THE BLITZ IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR, AND FROM WHICH THESE SURVIVING FRAGMENTS HAVE COME.
