LITERATURE

IN AUGUST 1848 COLONEL R B MASON, MILITARY GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA WENT TO WASHINGTON AND SHOWED THE SECRETARY OF WAR A TEA-CADDY HE HAD BROUGHT WITH HIM FULL OF LUMPS AND NUGGETS OF CALIFORNIAN GOLD.

THE GOLD STRIKE OF 1848 THEN CEASED TO BE SOLELY A CALIFORNIAN CONCERN AND BECAME THE 'GOLD RUSH' ATTRACTING OVER ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND PEOPLE TO SAN FRANCISCO IN SEARCH OF EL DORADO DURING 1849 ALONE.
