LITERATURE

AN INSATIABLE INTEREST IN THINGS ORIENTAL BEGAN IN 18TH CENTURY EUROPE AND RESULTED IN AN ENORMOUS RANGE OF EXQUISITE OBJECTS CREATED SPECIFICALLY FOR THE WESTERN MARKET. CONSEQUENTLY A VERITABLE FLOOD OF CHINESE OBJECTS, TEXTILES, PAINTINGS AND FURNITURE SAILED INTO THE WEST IN THE HOLDS OF EUROPEAN MERCHANT SHIPS THROUGHOUT THE 19TH CENTURY. CANTON WAS THE CENTRE OF THIS MANUFACTURE AND CHINA TRADE FELL INTO TWO DISTINCT CATEGORIES: THOSE BROUGHT FOR RESALE IN THE WEST AND THOSE SPECIALITY ITEMS LIKE THIS WALKING CANE THE TRADERS, CAPTAINS AND MERCHANTS BOUGHT FOR THEMSELVES.
