ARTHUR C. CLARKE WAS THE AUTHOR OF '2001 A SPACE ODYSSEY' AMONGST OTHER SCIENCE FICTION BOOKS. HE MOVED TO SRI LANKA IN MID-LIFE FOR THE CLIMATE AND TOOK UP SCUBA DIVING. IN 1963 HE FOUND THE WRECK OF AN INDIAN MERCHANT SHIP AND NEARBY HUNDREDS OF SILVER RUPEES SCATTERED ACROSS THE GREAT BASSES REEF, MANY OF WHICH HE RECOVERED. THE COINS WERE STRUCK DURING THE REIGN OF AURANGZEB (1658 - 1707) THE SIXTH EMPEROR OF THE MUGHAL EMPIRE AND MANY WERE STILL INSIDE THEIR ORIGINAL MONEY BAGS. CLARKE DONATED MOST OF THE COINS TO THE SMITHSONIAN MUSEUM, BUT THESE FOURTEEN HE GAVE TO HIS GOOD FRIEND THE FILM PRODUCER WILLIAM MACQUITTY.
